President's Note

As the many of you who went on last month's drive know—and as all of you saw in the Oil Spot—we had quite a fun drive after last October's meeting, up to the top of Mt. Spokane and down to Arbor Crest. November has already started off well with a new member. Welcome to Doug Zaitz, who drives a 73 Triumph Stag. Our November meeting at Illinois Avenue had great camaraderie. Be sure to read the meeting minutes in this Oil Spot for updates on Mike Shaw, Ray Peterson, dues policy, and other updates.

I did make one announcement: I will not be running for elective office next year. We should all be thinking about nominees we want for that and all the offices for next year. The club by-laws specify the immediate past president is automatically one of the three board members at large, so I shall remain in that capacity.

PRESIDENT'S NOTE

There was very good compliance at the November meeting with wearing of badges; however, Name Badge Enforcer Gary High did impose consequences on some violators. Be forewarned.

There is no meeting in December and be sure to check out the minutes.

Diane and I wish you each a very Happy Thanksgiving!

(Update from Pete after club meeting Pete reports he visited Ray again and he is doing better and is hopeful he will be discharge Monday or Tuesday. In addition, Ray sends his best to the Northwest Car Club members.)

It was decided at this meeting that dues from new members joining October 1st, or after, will be valid for the remainder of that year and the following full year. New members joining before October 1st, will have to renew on January 1st, the same as existing members.

Member Jim Miller asked the club to consider supporting the Highland Games again next year. A motion was made and passed to sponsor the Highland Games to be held on the first Saturday in August, for $100.

President Dave Hofstadter announced he will not be running for elective office next year and asks that members be thinking about nominees for all offices.
