President's Note

Oh my goodness was August busy! Highland Games, Brit Bull, Club picnic, Successful drive around Newman Lake, and the list goes on. I sent out Welcomes to our new members, but I'm going to do it again! Ron Lawson, Hazen Audel, Nedra Bayne, Tim & Marti Daniels, Tom & Cheryl Kammerzell, & Carl Coon. What a impressive amount of British cars ( 12 ).

My heart and deep thanks to Barb Woodall, for volunteering to relieve Robert Andrews as the editor of our Oil Spot. I just don't have enough kind words but, Thank You Very Much!!!

We had a good meeting at Beck's Park, hidden in a nice housing development, in Post Falls. There was about 13 fine looking British cars, and had some individuals taking pictures! Our next meeting will be indoors on October 14th at Barlow's in Liberty Lake. More information will come out at the beginning of October.

Have a fine time and keep your cars shined up.

Randy Staples

Meeting Minutes
NWBCCC
September 9, 2023

The September 9 meeting was begun at 10 am. Thirty one were in attendance. The meeting minutes from the previous meeting and the treasurer's report were both approved.

Old Business:

BritBull 2023: There were 105 cars and 3 motorcycles. This is the first time we've had motorcycles. Six new members joined the club, bringing us up to around 80 families who are members. The new members are: Ron Lawson, Carl Coon, Hazen Audel, Nedra Bayne, Tim & Marty Daniels, and Tom & Cheryl Kammerzell.

New Business:

Pete Yarbrough related the sad news that Ray Peterson passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday. Funeral arrangements will be shared if they are forthcoming.

Robert Andrews requested somebody to take over the Oil Spot. He has done it for 5 years. He related that it's a job where you serve mostly as a repository of information. It is a vital pipeline to get information to the members. It appears that Barb Woodall has generously agreed to volunteer to do the newsletter. Thank you, Barb!

Randy reminded us of a fun activity. The last Sunday of each month is Cars and Coffee at Manito Park from 8 - 10 am. There are always a variety of cars and their owners to visit with.

There is also Spokane Cars and Coffee on Sundays at 1 pm. The location is unclear. If any of you know the location, please share and we'll put it in the Oil Spot.

As a reminder, the club roster should be kept confidential. Please check it and make sure your information is accurate.

BritBull Pictures: Robert Andrews has all the pictures on a thumb drive and they came with Randy Mann's watermark on them. He took all the photos for free, so the BritBull Committee agreed to allow the watermarks as an advertisement in return for his services.

On Sept. 16 there is the Palouse Show and Shine from 9 - 3. There will also be the Cops and Cars in Liberty Lake on that day.

In early August, a number of club members attended Mike Shaws memorial service. Afterwards we stayed to reminisce, shared stories about Mike, and visited with Sandy Shaw and their children. Though sad, it was quite a nice service.

There was no planned drive for the day of the meeting. Mirabeau Park was having the HASSIE Show that day which several of our members planned to attend.

Jim Miller said the Highland Games was well received. Our club had 11 cars there. There was a lot of foot traffic, with 2500 people total attending. Jim thanked everyone who showed up.

Next meeting will be at Barlows Restaurant at Liberty Lake on Oct. 14. Watch emails for announcements.

The meeting was closed at 10:22 am.

2023 - UPCOMING EVENTS

- Oct 14 NWBC Club Meeting - Stand by for time and location.

— — Note from the Editor — —

It is my greatest pleasure to announce that Barb Woodall has volunteered to serve our new “NWBC Club “Oil Spot Editor”. Barb and I will co-author the Oil Spot over the next several months. So for the remainder of 2023, please include both of us in all future emails associated with Oil Spot contents.

Cheers.
