President's Note

Happy New Year!

Good Day to everybody;

I'm Randy Staples and was elected your new President of the NWBCC. Just some information about myself. I live in Liberty Lake with my spouse Vickie. We have two grown son's Joseph & Jeremy. I am retired Navy having done 28 years retiring in 1998. I made cruises on six aircraft carriers starting with the Ticonderoga and ending with Constellation. I was in ten different squadrons which included F-4 Phantoms, helicopters, and finishing with EA6B Prowlers at NAS Whidbey Island, Wa. My little British car is a 1973 MGB-GT, named "BridGeTte", which is the third one I have owned. I will do my best to continue on in the outstanding leadership role as my esteemed predecessor and colleague!

Please read the Oil Spot since it gives valuable information on up coming drives and meetings. Don't forget breakfast at Barlow's in Liberty Lake 0900 11 March and we'll discuss the future events.

Minutes of NWBC Monthly Meeting & Annual Banquet

February 11th, 2023
Meeting held at Darvy's Restaurant
Spokane Valley, WA

The Banquet was called to order and all attending were welcomed by President Dave Hofstadter at 6:55PM. The minutes and the treasurer's report from the previous meeting held on November 12th, 2022 were approved. The president thanked Annette and the Darcy staff, as well as banquet coordinator Jim Houghton, for all of their work planning and arranging the banquet. In addition, the president noted that "most" of the banquet attendees were wearing their name badges.

The president reminded the members that if they haven't paid their dues their membership would be, unfortunately, dropped.

New member Scott Montagna (1960 Austin Mini Cooper) was welcomed into the club.

President Dave Hofstadter announced that hats, tee shirts, and sweat shirts were still available and for sale by the club.

President Dave Hofstadter then addressed a few words on the state of the NWBC, reporting that finances are stable at about $4,000, thanks to Treasurer Kevan. Also, club membership continues to climb. Last year at banquet time there were 75 families in the club, and as of tonight there are 88 families in the club.

As a club we had 9 drives this year - plus Cars&Coffees, BritBull, and the club picnic. At the 2022 banquet 33 members attended, at tonight's banquet 42 members attended.

The president reminded the members to mark their calendars for the 2023 BritBull XXVI to be held on August 13th at Grant Park, in Spokane, again this year.
