President's Note

What a superb banquet at Darcy's in Spokane Valley. The food was outstanding, we had the officer's re-nomination's, and amazingly, nobody lost out on their serving another year!! " Hip – Hip Hooray " The gift's this year were very interesting and actually impressive. Lot's of swapping and horse trading during the time with considerable laughing and joking. Wonderful!!!

March 09th Meeting is coming sooner then usual so get your thinking caps on for the summer drive schedule. Please be flexible about dates so we can get through them and not step on others toes. I hope we have lot's of volunteers for the Corbin Center Anniversary and can get 20 + vehicles to attend. This isn't a long way to drive and the bennies sound pretty good.

The weather you think is starting to clear up and then we get a couple inches of snow just to keep us on our toes. I did get my MG out on Wednesday to go into Post Falls, and then Thursday snow hit us and Sunday snow also. Playing these days by the seat of our cars!

Looking forward to March 09th meeting to see everybody again and always remember "Name Tags". Ides of March are upon us!!

Randy Staples

Jim Houghton is organizing this and still has 10 spots available as of Feb. 24. We can participate in all the events, including the Silent Auction.
